

Prayer of Confession

Let us help each other stand and take off the robe of mourning. Lift up your broken hearts:

We lift them up to God

Let us honor God

It is right to honor God

It is right to honor God and to give our thanks.

We give our thanks to God.

Why We Are Here

The prayer continues. . .

. . . When we do harm to your Creation, your creatures and fellow human beings, forgive us.

When we fail to do all the good we can, in all the places we can, forgive us.

When we turn away from your love and grace, forgive us.

Hear now the good news of Jesus Christ,

You are forgiven. I am forgiven. We are forgiven.

Peace be with you.

And also with you

We Prepare for the Feast

The liturgy continues. . .

Jesus Christ, Creator's Son, our brother and friend, with honor and respect, we remember the great sacrifice of your life for us and for our people.

With awe and humility, we remember the miracle of your resurrection from death.

With faith, hope and trust, we remember the promise you made to return and lead us home.

Sharing of the Feast

The liturgy continues. . .

As the grain was given by Creator God to all peoples of the world,

Jesus Christ was also given to nourish and sustain.

As the fruit of the vine was given by Creator God to all peoples of the world,

Jesus Christ was also given to bind us to God and one another.

As the women from many tribes knead, fold, and make the bread in holy stillness, so the women tended and cared for the broken body of Jesus Christ:

A sacrifice for us.

Spirit, help us now. Come and breathe into these gifts of bread and juice.

As we receive these gifts into our bodies, may our breath become the sweet breath of Christ.

Rise up, Nations of God,

Give God your praise!

Rise up, Clans of Nations,

Come together and give God your praise!

Rise up, Bands of Nations,

Lift your hands and give God your praise!

The Feast

Please come forward at the direction of the ushers to receive Holy Communion. Please present open hands to the servers to give you fry bread dipped in grape juice. Gluten-free option is available.
